

Easter Suits

The Church-Reed Co. has admirably interpreted the new mood of Spring-time with a myriad of rich colorings and joyous styles galore. They express new ideas in an exceedingly attractive way.

The old styles won't do. Spring-time demands fresh new patterns and colorings. You want something entirely different. Predominant among the styles for Spring is the new-waist model. You'll see many pleasing variations of it in the New Kuppenheimer Suits we are now showing.

SPRING HILL

The annual business meeting of the members of the Baptist church was held Thursday evening, when the same officers were elected to serve for another year.

Friday evening the Ladies Aid society served a baked bean and salad supper to about 60 and presented the following entertainment: Piano duet, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Weid; recitation, Mr. Weid; song, Marjorie Nason; farce, When Women Vote, by Mrs. Weid; Mrs. Nason, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. W. Second—To see what action said town will take to improve or discontinue King Hill, so-called, on the road leading from Mansfield city to Esqueville. It was voted to raise and appropriate the sum of $1,200 for the former and the selectmen were authorized and instructed to confer with the state highway commissioner immediately and to have the work pushed forward as soon as possible. It was voted to appropriate a sum not exceeding $500 on the second count.

YANTIC

The first frost of the season started in late Wednesday night, Thursday morning the ice bordering the river, brooks and canal were inundated. Much driftwood was swept along by the current and small houses were given a similar building. Vessels were given a changed location. Vessels were numerous and the first trolley crew had a hard time making Yantic, as the tracks were so covered with sand that clearing them made extra work and it was difficult keeping the cars on schedule time.

Workmen employed by the Admore Woolen company are busy cutting down the pine ash and other trees along the left bank of the canal, between the gates at the dam and the mill. This is destroying the scenic beauty especially of the rocky gorge known as The Little Falls, a spot much visited by tourists and artists, some of the latter bringing pupils there to study the beauty of the rocks and trees.

The winter term at the Sodom model school closed Friday, April 11, to reopen April 21. The following pupils were perfect in attendance during the entire term: Raymond Banning, Adam Homick, Viola Banning (dismissed ones) and Dorothy Banning.

AUSTRALIAN IMPORTS FROM UNITED STATES

Melbourne, Wednesday, April 16.—In the first five months in 1918 Australian imports from the United States exceeded her exports to America by nearly $5,000,000, while in 1917 there was a balance of nearly $4,000,000 against America, A. V. Ferris, the United States commercial attaché here, said in an address here today.

Mr. Ferris said he believed the stream of trade would eventually balance Australia's exports in the future would be in wool, tin, hides, skins and probably dairy products while the imports from America would consist mostly of clothing, mechanical machinery and machine tools. He said he was of the opinion that the new Australian tariff would be strongly protective, but that it would not have any serious effect on American imports.

What Is Going On Tonight.

Pythian Sisters, Purinton Temple, No. 2 meet in Odd Fellows' hall.

Landore Axelrod, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Axelrod of Riverside Park, was drowned in the Willimantic river Thursday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock. The boy was playing with a chum on the bank of the river just above the dam, near the upper mill of the Quinick Windham Manufacturing company. The boys were amusing themselves by throwing sticks and other articles into the water, which is unusually high just at this time owing to the recent rains and the current is very swift and strong. Finally they got hold of a large sized box and between them were swinging it, preparatory to throwing it into the river. Axelrod's companion let go of his end and the former, holding on to it, was precipitated into the swiftly flowing current. The boy held on to the box, went over the first dam and was still holding on to the box when he went under the first bridge, about three hundred yards below the dam. Just below the bridge a limb of a tree extends over twenty or thirty feet from shore fairly close to the water and it was said by a woman who saw him that the boy was carried down by the current directly under this limb and made frantic efforts to grasp it, but was unsuccessful, it being just out of his reach. From that point on nobody seems to have seen him, although the box was seen floating later near the second dam. The police were notified and started a search for the body, which will be difficult to locate owing to the high water and swift currents and had not been recovered up to a late hour Thursday night.

Between forty and fifty operatives in the box shop of the American Thread company left their work on Thursday morning and were out for the rest of the day. The trouble seems to have arisen over an employee named Mabel Judge who it is said has been inquiring from girl operatives in the shop as to how much money they were earning. One girl refused to give her the information she asked for and it is said was discharged. Other girls protested and after a meeting of the grievance committee the girls were not discharged and the trouble was somewhat similar to that of a few weeks ago, while an official of the union claimed that the girls were discharged and that the action was a strike. A meeting of the union was held Thursday night in Labor Union hall when the matter was discussed, after which a report of the affair was sent to New York officials of the Textile Workers' Union.

At the meeting Thursday night of Obvethack Lodge, No. 16, L. O. O. F., the reports of the various committees were heard in connection with the great parade and celebration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the lodge of Odd Fellows to be held in Hartford, April 25th and 26th. Practically all plans have been completed so far as the local lodge participation in the event is concerned. As the arrangements for the parade are being made, the lodge will go to Hartford, April 25th and in the grand parade to be held that afternoon will be headed by the Willimantic American band of 25 pieces. The trip to Hartford will be made in automobiles. A handsome special badge and cane will be provided each member by the local lodge and all members will wear white gloves. A large number signified their willingness to go to Hartford to attend the opening ceremonies at Parsons theatre, at which time addresses will be made by prominent officers of the sovereign grand lodge.

There was considerable excitement for a minute on Main street Thursday night about 9 o'clock while Officer Paulhus was trying to persuade two young intended sailors to accompany him to the police station in peaceful manner, but the sailors would not have it that way at all. One of them was what an average citizen would term crazy drunk. His chum was more noisy than intoxicated. With these sailors had been noised during the afternoon as being pretty boisterous but "got by" until they attended the evening performance in the scenic picture house on Bank street. They made a great disturbance in there that Officer Paulhus was called in and he brought them out the corner of 30th and Bank streets, where they refused to go further and used much loud, vile language. With the help of one or two in the crowd of a hundred, which had gathered, a pair of "twisters" were adjusted and from that time on the going was more easy for the officer. They will appear before the police court this (Friday) morning on the charge of intoxication and interference with a police officer during the performance of his duty.

Some of the employees of the Holland Silk Company were recently given a ten per cent increase in wages.

A. A. Burton, chairman of the Community Labor Union of the district, has asked the leading officers of twenty local organizations, also the mayor of this city and a selectman to meet with the Labor Board (this) Friday evening in the Chamber of Commerce rooms for the purpose of organizing a Community Committee to devise ways and means to secure employment for all returning soldiers and sailors in this section. The number is increasing daily and the need is apparent of knowing so far as possible the maximum help wants of this community. Similar action is being taken in other cities throughout the state.

Word has been received in town by relatives of Dr. Owen O'Neil of his expected arrival in Boston Sunday, from this city and a selectman is being given a warm welcome on his arrival in this city. He was rated as a lieutenant upon enlisting in the medical corps about a year ago and shortly after went overseas. Later he received his commission as captain.

CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH RECIPE FOR CATARRH, CATARRH, DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you know of someone who is troubled with catarrhal deafness, head noises or chronic nostritis, show out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear, which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs, which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate, is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climatic conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmit (Don't mistake). Take this home and add to it 1 pint of hot water, and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. The following formula is a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

London district, was in town for a short time Thursday.

The banks and all the offices in the town building will be closed all day, and all the manufacturing plants in the town will shut down. The American Thread Company plant and the Quinick Windham plant will remain closed until Monday morning, while the Holland Silk plant and Windham Silk Company will run Saturday forenoon.

USE CARRIER PIGEONS INSTEAD OF TELEPHONE

Boston, April 17.—Army officials made use of carrier pigeons today to supplement the impaired telephone service. Although most of the nearby posts could be reached by means of the direct telephone wires connecting with army headquarters here, there was practically no communication with outlying stations except by telegraph. Pigeons were used to carry messages between headquarters and Fort Constitution at Portsmouth and between Boston and Camp Devens, some of the harbor forts and other posts.

Why Beefsteak Is High

This chart was copied from Bulletin No. 226, U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. It is the latest that has been issued. 100=1916 price.

Remember when beefsteak was 20c a pound?

Now it's 40 and 50 cents a pound.

Why?

This chart shows that the price packers have had to pay for cattle has gone up with the price received for beef.

In fact, it shows that the "spread" between cattle and beef prices has been gradually reduced during the past 30 years—owing to competition among packers, their increased efficiency, bigger volume, and elimination of waste.

The packer's profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound of meat has helped to narrow this "spread."

Increased farm-production costs have made higher cattle prices necessary.
